Kimberly-Clark To Webcast Presentations And Q&A At Investor Meeting In New York City

DALLAS, March 17, 2010 - Kimberly-Clark Corporation (NYSE: KMB) will host a meeting for the investment community and will webcast associated presentations on its progress on the key strategies, initiatives and financial objectives of its Global Business Plan, beginning at 8 a.m. (EDT) on Monday, March 22, in New York City. Chairman and CEO Thomas J. Falk will be joined by members of K-C's senior leadership team for these presentations and a question and answer period, which will continue until approximately 10:00 a.m.

The company will subsequently host breakout sessions in which analysts and investors will meet with key Kimberly-Clark business leaders in its North Atlantic Consumer Products, K-C International, K-C Professional and Health Care businesses. These sessions will not be webcast.

A link to the broadcast and related presentation slides will be provided through the Investors section of Kimberly-Clark's Web site at www.kimberly-clark.com. The webcast will be available for replay for a period of approximately three weeks through the link provided on the website.
